American Indian Resource Center	Amah Mutsun Speaker Series is the second bi-annual event that offers an opportunity to host three medicine people who come from California Native American traditions. Native American communities have high incidents of illness and stressors that impact their sense of wellness. The impact of genocide and historical traumas continue to impact the every day lives of Indian peoples. This event will provide an opportunity to address the issues of wellness and identify and relearn traditional approaches to wellness through open discussion and engagement with elders.	$1000 for travel and $1500 for honorarium, and $1000 for lodging	11/3/09	$3,500.00
Women's Center	Haunted by Domestic Violence is an event hosted by the Women's Center which will educate people with passive and overt information about the intimate violence. Displays will be posted about the amount of violence reported and unreported. A video will also be highlighted showing violence in films.
