

Engaging Education: CARE Council
Funding Allocations:
Winter 2008-2009

Resource Center	Event Name	Event Description	Allocation Description	Date	Awarded
Womens center	Luna Fest	Lunafest is an annual event that works to empower women through making visible media by women, including social documentation. The event also raises money for organizations working on issues pertaining to women.	Funds are to be used to rent out the Crepe Place.	2/10/09	$3,000.00
African American Resource & Cultural Center: AARCC	Push the Button	This event is dedicated to the AARC effort to kick off a fundraising campaign in spring 2009 during the UCSC Reunion weekend to develop a fundraising template with assistance and support from alumni.	The CARE Council has decided to fund the Catered Reception (lunch), the Continental Breakfast and the catered Dinner.	2/10/09	$2,750.00
El Centro	Cesar Chavez Convocation	The goal of this event is to honor the memory and struggle of Cesar Chavez, a civil right activists for social justice issues and labor issues of farm workers. The event brings to campus a prominent chicano or latino activist who helps us all to remember and to keep present Cesars legacy.	$3000 is to partially fund the honorarium of Kent Wong and $700 is to be used to pay for travel.	2/10/09	$3,700.00
American Indian Resource Center: AIRC	Heal the Earth	Heal the Earth: Indigenous day is a conference that will feature Native American Envorinment activists and experts. The event will feature a keynote presentation, a panel discussion, and break out talking circles.	CARE Council has funded the honorariums and travel expenses of the speakers for this conference.	2/11/09	$2,742.00
African American Resource & Cultural Center: AARCC	Nikki Giovanni	Nikki Giovanni is a world renound poet and activist. As a queer woman of color, her experiences speak to a multitude of communities. The event will include a performance/talk with the artist, followed by a talk-back.	Funds were allocated to help pay for Nikki Giovanni's honorarium.	2/11/09	$3,000.00
Lionel Cantu Center	Rainbow Graduation	The 11th annual Rainbow ceremony is a celebration of the GLBTI and ally graduates. This celebration is unique in the nation in that it includes graduates from local junior high and high schools as well as from community colleges, and graduate programs.	CARE Council has decided to fully fund this proposal.	2/18/09	$2,650.00
American Indian Resource Center: AIRC	Amah Mutsun	The goal of the event is to create a presence for the Amah Mutsun Tribal people at UCSC. The speaker, Dr. Brave Heart will speak on issues pertaining to discuss issues surrounding American Indian communities, such as stress and trauma.	The CARE Council has decided to fund the honoariums and travel expenses of the speakers.	2/18/09	$2,500.00
Asian American Pacific Islander Resprice Center: AAPIRC	Faculty Luncheon	Faculty luncheons will hi-light AAPI professors in the UCSC community through allowing students to spend intimate time with them in an informal panel and conversation space. The faculty will share about their journey through academia and share knowledge and advice with students.	$500 was allocated to cover food for the luncheons.	2/18/09	$500.00
Asian American Pacific Islander Resprice Center: AAPIRC	AAPI Retention Forum	The AAPI Retention Forum was part of the Heritage Month series of events. This event was aimed at addressing the retention rates of the AAPI community. Judy Sakai will be speaking on the statistics of AAPI students and demystifying the model minority myth.	Funds were allocated to fund the catering and panelist.	2/18/09	$948.00
Total CARE Allocation Winter:					$21,790.00