African American Recognition Ceremony	The African American Recognition Ceremony is annual celebration of UCSC's graduating seniors of African/Black descent. It is driven by the stagnate demographics of African American students, but also affirms that studetns of African/Black descent continue to overcome many barriers that prevent access and retention in institutions of Hlgher Education such as UCSC. This event provides a space to fully acknowledge the completion of four long hard years of academic engagement and recognizing those who supported and enabled the graduates success.	Funding is unrestricted, but meant to cover plaques, podium, certificates, and utensils.	4/24/09	$1,500.00
