

Engaging Education (e²)

Winter 2007 SIOC Funding Allocations

Program Name	Proposal Name and Description	Date	Awarded Allocation
AATAT: African American Theatre Arts Troupe	AATAT is a an outreach program to Monterey County, that seeks to promote cultural awareness and validate the experiences of various communities through theatre. They will be traveling to high schools to expose students to the possibilities of college.	1/13/07	$3,480.00
ASF: A Step Forward	ASF was created by FSA as an annual event that introduces admitted and prospective high school students and junior transfers to the college environment of UCSC. It is a three day program that seeks to build social networks with these prospective students and encourage them to attend higher education.	1/20/07	$19,182.00
DHE: Destination Higher Education	DHE, is an African American high school program founded in the fall of 1996 created by ABSA. Created to increase the number of Black students here at UCSC. The program focuses to encourage admitted high school seniors to attend a four year institution, providing students with financial aid workshops, building student connections and developing students social consciousness.	1/20/07	$16,601.00
GENTE: Getting Educated Now to Empower	MEChA's 20th annual conference, once known as Parent Student Conference was created to promote higher education within underrepresented Chicana/o and Latina/o communities. This program outreaches to both students and parents at all level of education to education them about the importance of higher education. They hold financial aid workshops, admissions requirements, and give space to discuss issues affecting the community	1/13/07	$10,059.00
ORALE: Oportunidades Rumbo A La Educacion	Created from MEChA, this program seeks to engage Chicana/o and Latina/o high school seniors and transfer students to seek a higher education. This is a free three day program that provides workshops on resources available on the UCSC campus. The program also emphasizes cultural pride and community building tools to survive in this university.	1/20/07	$17,830.00
Inspiration for Scholars of Higher Education	Created by the Hmong Student Association, to outreach to the Hmong community and motivate students from this community to seek higher education as a way to empower and end poverty.	2/14/07	$1,627.00

MC: Motivation Conference	Motivation Conference was created by APISA over 12 years ago with the purpose of outreaching to various communities. This three day program, is organized by students to educate high school students from all grade levels to think about higher education as an option. They provide students with knowledge about financial aid, resources, and workshops to build empowerment amongst students and communities to end systems of oppression.	2/14/07	$16,718.00
Rainbow Theatre Outreach-Bay Area	Rainbow Theatre-Bay Area Outreach seeks to high schools to heighten high school students' awareness of higher education through performance art. They will provide students with testimonials, financial aid information, and the process for applying to a four-year institution. By targeting schools with predominately under-resourced and "at risk youth" Rainbow Theatre hopes to mend the low rates of retention and recruitment both in the UC System and specifically at UCSC.	2/14/07	$921.00