

Engaging Education (e^2)
SIOC Funding Allocation: Winter 2008-2009

Program Name	Program Description	Allocation Description	Date	Award Allocation
Rainbow Theatre Outreach-Bay Area	Rainbow Theatre Bay Area Outreach visits four different high schools in the the Bay Area targeting two schools within low income neighborhoods. The program promotes awareness of higher education through performances from multicultural plays. During this program they provide information on financial aid, the college admission process and giving testimonials on college experience by students close to their age group.	Funds will be used for reserving vehicles, parking, copies, hotel and lodging, food, UCSC gear to give to participants, and gas to drive there and back.	3/10/09	$3,006.42
AATAT: African American Theater Arts Troupe	AATAT Outreach is a program that visits 2 high schools in the Monterrey area where through performance skits they educate stidents on the importance of higher education and resources available to them. They answer questions that students may have and play interactive theater games to engage the students.	Dinner for 2 meals, gas for vehicles, vans, hotel, 2 lunch meals, pens, pencils, snacks, and UCSC Gear.	2/26/09	$2,890.24
ASF: A Step Forward	ASF was created by FSA as an annual event that introduces admitted and prospective high school students and junior transfers to the college environment of UCSC. It is a three day program that seeks to build social networks with these prospective student	The SIOC has allocated funds to cover transportation, venues, food for three days, utensils, and supplies (I.e. wrist bands, pens, construction paper, sleeping bags, rubber bands, copy cards, etc.)	2/26/09	$10,234.92
DHE: Destination Higher Education	Destination Higher Education was created by the African/Black Student Assocation here at UCSC. The goal of the program is to continue to motivate and expose students to the UCSC campus and encourage them to go on to an institution of higher learning. This	Funds were allocated to cover: food for three days, venues, insurance, transportation, mailing envelopes, DJ, Honorarium, nametags, pay for security, copy cards and OPERS sleeping bags.	3/3/09	$9,350.56
ISHE: Inspiration for Scholars of Higher Education	ISHE is an annual conference plan and executed by the Hmong Student Association. This program seeks to motivate and prepare Hmong studetns to begin thinking about college as a possibility. The conference	The SIOC has allocated funds to cover charter buses, rental car, gas card, copy cards, catered food for 3 days, t-shirts, venues, honorarium for guest speaker, travel and lodging for speaker, utensils, and insurance.	3/5/09	$8,353.50
Lifting As We Climb	Outreach program organized by the National Association for Black Accountants. This outreach program works with students involved in the TRYUMF program at Oakland Technical High School. This program mentors students on the pre-requisites to get into college, as well as information on financial aid, and college life at UCSC.	SIOC allocated to cover venues for workshops, dinning hall food, insurance, and a continental breakfast and snacks.	5/14/09	$980.00
MC: Motivation Conference	Motivation Conference is a three-day program created by APISA that focuses on bring "at-risk" high school students from different community centers to UCSC and engaging with college students. The program offers students various workshops that shows them t	Funds were allocated to cover: utensils, security, venues, DJ, 3 meals a day for 2 1/2 days, beverages, honoarium for speakers, nametags, flyers to outreach, sleeping bags from OPERS, media equipment, t-shirts, workshop materials, and transportaiton (Airplane ticket, gas cards, rental vehicles, and parking permits).	3/10/09	$11,489.13
ORALE: Oportunidades Rumbo A La Educaci3n	ORALE: Oportunidades Rumbo A La Educacion Created from MEChA, this program seeks to engage Chicana/o and Latina/o high school seniors and transfer students to seek a higher education. This is a free three day program that provides workshops on resource	The SIOC has allocated funds to cover: transportation for a special events bus, parking permits, funding to cover venues(Namaste Lounge, College 9/10 MPR & Oakes Lower Lawn), food for 2 1/2 days, DJ, cover costs for Para La Gente, Whitehawk, art supplies, media, snacks, insurance, First Aid Kit, and utensils.	2/24/09	$11,619.98
Total Allocation Amount for Winter:				$57,924.75